Anita Chateau "Watercolor Artist"

Anita Chateau is a San Diego County artist. She fulfilled a life-long dream of becoming a professional artist in 2004 after she retired from teaching in the San Ysidro Elementary School District. Anita favors painting all elements of nature as well candid portraits of her grandchildren and family members. She continues to develop her painting skills by attending art seminars and participating in art workshops.

Anita is a member of the San Diego Watercolor Society and serves on the Chula Vista Art Guild Board of Directors.
