I am currently the WAG alternate for the Northwest resident position. I have attended all of the meetings from the very beginning, participated in writing the NRMP, served on committees and currently am co-chair of our ad hoc educational committee. I live in the Chula Vista Marina, so the bay is my front porch. I have a vested interest in educating visitors about the natural environment and how to respectfully interact with the environment. My ad hoc committee is developing educational material about boaters and rafting birds, sea turtles and beach erosion caused by boating wakes. I am part of South Bayfront Artists association, we have a small gallery in CV Marina (which I curate) and we use it as a showcase for local artists, photographers to educate the community about the bay front. In 2014 I received a CV arts grant to photographically document the large area of land south of the Nature Center over the course of a year and compare data concerning rainfall, temperature and invasive plant growth. I did presentations to small groups to discuss climate change and the effect on our bay front.

I feel so fortunate to have learned from all of the knowledge that the other WAG members bring. It's been a wonderful education.

23. What would you hope to accomplish in the role of a Member of the Wildlife Advisory Group? (250 words or less)

I have valued my time as a WAG member and would like to continue the work we've started. My co-chair on the ad hoc committee is Amanda Grant, Director of Education from the Living Coast Discovery Center, and we have a list of projects we'd like to find funding for and see through through to completion. As a boater who spends a great deal of time of the water, I am always on the lookout for ways to educate boaters and visitors to the bay front to be respectful and yet enjoy the area. I would like to see that my contributions to the NRMP are put into place and monitored. The bay front is a gift to all of us. It's a living demonstration of how we are all interconnected with the environment. Protecting, managing and, educating have been the mandate of the WAG and it needs local members with a commitment to do that. That's me!

24. I understand that to be considered, I must submit a resume along with this application.

20. What are your principal areas of interest in our City government, and what experience or special knowledge can you bring to those areas?

My principle area of interest in our City government is helping it continue to grow in a positive way and cultivate a diverser population that I have grown to love. I joined the Navy in 2002 and served until 2010. I moved to the San Diego area after completing boot camp and I have lived here since then. In 2009 I moved to Chula Vista with my husband and daughter. It is the only place that has felt like home to me.

I am a recent graduate from USC Annenberg School of Communication and Journalism. During my studies, one of my largest projects was creating an integrated communication plan for increasing awareness of the USC School of Social Work Center of Innovation and Research on Veterans and Military families. I am also a member of the USC Veterans Alumni Association. I understand the difficulties that veterans and military service members face on a day to day basis.

I was also responsible for program development and communication management for the USS ESSEX Family Association. I was responsible for developing and participating in various outreach and community strengthening activities and events.

21. What would you hope to accomplish in the role of a Veterans Advisory Commissioner? (250 words or less)

Chula Vista is an excellent place for veterans to turn to upon separation from the military. Not only does the city have a wide variety of resources, veterans offer a wealth of knowledge, strong work ethic, and are an equal resource to the community. I also feel that being a veteran gives me not only insight, but the ability to connect with other veterans through the experience of service to our country.
