

2019 Performing and Visual Arts Grant Recommendations

PVAG Account Balance as of May 2018 : $91,839
 - PVAG 2018 Encumbered monies: $12,100
 PVAG 2019 Available Grant Award: $79,739

Total 2019 PVAG Award

Recommendation : $78,730

1. Chula Vista Art Guild (SouthBay Front Artists, Southwestern College) Ask: $2,300 Chula Vista Art Guild is the City's longest and largest member arts organization. CVAG is a non-profit organization that, in collaboration with SouthBay Front Artists and Southwestern college, they propose to curate professional, juried arts exhibitions, provide free to low cost workshops, and continue to grant out scholarships to art students. CVAG also proposes to dedicate the next year growing diversity in membership and program development.	Award $2,000 Workshops, demonstrations, and scholarships
2. Karl Bunker (Sacra/Profana) Ask: $2,750 Sacra/Profana is a critically acclaimed chamber choir that has performed with a multitude of large, nationally recognized organizations such as San Diego Symphony, La Jolla Music Society, and Disney Theatrical Productions. Genderx would support artist development through the composer competition and the culminating performance.	Award $1,375 For Singers and Accompanist
3. Young Audiences/Arts for Learning (City of Chula Vista Library) Ask: $5,000 Arts for Learning provides a free performance series. The program provides free access for families. Last PVAG cycle Arts for Learning was provided $5,000 which included free books at each performance.	Award $3,175 Performers: Music, Dance, Theater. (i.e. Jerry Hager- $365, SDSU- $500, Akayaa $695, Sol e Mar $520, and Rob Thorsen Quartet $595) $625 for books

2019 Performing and Visual Arts Grant Recommendations

4. Music in the Park Ask: $5,000 The Music in Park Concert Series produced by the City of Chula Vista Recreation Division. The events are proposed to be held on Sunday afternoon/evenings. This year, Music in the Park will include an additional concert and kids activities provided by Empower Hour and they will work with Cultural Arts Chula Vista for additional artist programming during the event.	Award $5,000 $4,800 for musicians $200 for sound reinforcement
5. Chula Vista Library Film Forum Ask: $1,800 The Film Forum Series provides an educational and community opportunity through film access and discussion. This year Film Forum San Diego will work with Cultural Arts for theme and discussion panels as well as building in a collaborative opportunity for student and up and coming filmmakers to screen their work and possibly lead discussions.	Award $1,800 Film screening, discussion panels , collaborative opportunities for students and up and coming filmmakers to screen their work and possibly lead discussions.
6. Bernardo Mazon - Fuñata Ask: 2,500 Fuñata is an interactive interdisciplinary family friendly performances (performances for both youth and general public). Fuñata will showcase the collaborative talents of three professional artists.	Award $2,200 Playwrite and artists, art supplies, and marketing materials.
7. TranscendANCE Youth Arts Ask: $5,000 TranscendANCE will collaborate with South Bay Community Services, Our Safe Place, to engage the LGBTQ youth community. Under the direction of a professional teaching artist, participants, through dance, spoken word, and performing arts, will have an opportunity to examine their identities, personal narratives, and other key aspects of their authentic selves.	Award $4,000 $2,000 for Master Teaching Artist $2,000 for Artistic Director, music and marketing

2019 Performing and Visual Arts Grant Recommendations

8. On Stage Playhouse Ask: $7,000 The OnStage Playhouse Student Intern Apprentice Program provides students with professional theater experience as well as an opportunity to write, produce and perform a full length play.	Award $2,000 $500 for student apprentice stipends $1,000 for college scholarships $500 for production supplies
9. Animal Care Serenity Garden Ask: $3,900 The ACF is one of few animal resources that provide low cost services to the community, including end of life services. The Serenity Garden is a collaborative proposal between the ACF and community groups, and local artist(s) to design and infuse a space with art to create a peaceful and colorful place for one that has been impacted by the death of an animal.	Award $1,800 $1500 for artists and wall prep $300 for decorative bench/pew
10. La Jolla Playhouse Ask: $2,550 The POP Tour provides professional teaching artists led workshops, professional performances, and interactive programming.	Award $2,550 POP Tour : professional teaching artists led workshops, professional performances, and interactive programming.
11. Intrepid Theater Company (Bayfront Charter School & High Tech High) Ask: $15,125 Intrepid Theater Company will provide professional level curriculum to introduce High School students to the work of a significant African American playwright and the social justice, historical and literary themes of his plays. This program also includes student final projects and opportunity to compete in the first August Wilson Monologue Competition.	Award $3,600 Professional level arts program of African American playwright August Wilson and the social justice, historical and literary themes of his plays and curation of student final projects/exhibition.
12. Bocon Arts (Melody Rico) Ask: $2,500 Melody Rico, in with the professional assistance of Bocón Arts & TuYo Theater Company utilizing a Devised Theater approach will develop, produce, & perform a play at OnStage Playhouse.	Award $2,200 Artist, Director, play write stipends

2019 Performing and Visual Arts Grant Recommendations

13. Bonita Vista Music Machine (Glenner Alzheimer's Center) Ask: $4,420 Bonita Vista High in collaboration with the Glenner Alzheimers Center will produce an intergenerational interactive musical and dance performance based upon Reminiscence Therapy protocols.	Award $1,000 Artists, costumes, materials for set and props
14. Guild of Puppetry/Fern Street Circus Ask: $5,000 Guild of Puppetry is partnering with Fern Street Circus for the second year to bring a unique day of folk arts programming to activate one of Chula Vista's parks in one of the City's underserved areas. The event is both performance based and interactive and provides the community access to a type of arts programming that is not typical in the region.	Award $3,150 Puppetry art and performances and booths, Circus Artists and Musicians
15. San Diego Youth Symphony (Chula Vista Elementary District) Ask: $10,000 San Diego Youth Symphony Community Opus Project provides free professional music instruction to Chula Vista Elementary School students.	Award $4,000 Teaching Artist
16. Mayra Barragan Ask: $2,250 Mayra Barragan is a professional dancer with a significant resume of success in her field. The Great Wave Movement series is an innovative collective of dance performance. The proposal includes an ambitious project schedule with lots of moving parts for its inaugural year.	Award $1,000 Dancers
17. Library Cultural Arts, Arts Camp Ask: $2,500 This program proposes professional artists led art camp during district breaks. The artists and art curriculum/project is not specified.	Award $2,000 $1,600 for Art Instructors $400 for Art Supplies

2019 Performing and Visual Arts Grant Recommendations

18. Old Globe Theater (South Bay Community Services) Ask: $5,000 Globe for All provides access to professional Theatre to a diverse audience that otherwise may not have such access. In addition, The proposal includes a performance of A MidSummer Night's Dream, access to a performance at the Old Globe, and two free Bard Basics Workshops (interactive workshops that introduce the participants to Shakespeare and his work)	Award $4,000 $1,500 for actors $2,500 for Teaching artists
19. Starlight Parade Ask: $5,000 The Starlight Parade is one of the oldest City sponsored events. The proposal includes family friendly Children's Faire led by the City's recreation division that will provide a day of free children's activities prior to the Parade.	Award $2,800 Children's Faire led by the City's recreation division that will provide a day of free children's activities prior to the Parade.
20. Labrats Ask: $5,000 LabRats in partnership with Sweetwater Union High School STEAM program are producing the Game of Throws Pumpkin Smash. This event incorporates innovation and creativity as student teams design, build and decorate the devices (Trebuchets) needed to strategically launch pumpkins certain distances. The event is both a competition and community festival.	Award $1,500 costumes, trebuchet design and construction.
21. San Diego Ballet- Javier Velasco Ask: $5,000 Professional teaching artists dance program at Chula Vista Middle School. Includes a free community performance	Award $2,500 Teaching Artists and Dancers
22. New Children's Museum Ask: $2,580 Comunidad is an Arts youth engagement program managed in partnership with the New Children's Museum and South Bay	Award $1,500 $1,000 for teaching artists $500 for art/workshop supplies

2019 Performing and Visual Arts Grant Recommendations

Community Services that will provide hands on workshops, family activities, and an exhibition of works.
23. Outside the Lens Ask: $5,000 Outside the Lens in partnership with Love Thy Neighbor and in collaboration with Cultural Arts Chula Vista will screen a feature film on the topic of the impact of incarceration. The project will include a panel discussion of experts, advocates, and those impacted, a professionally led photography workshop and a digital exhibition. In addition, a call for artists will also be made by Cultural Arts Chula Vista for works that explores the theme of the impacts of incarceration. An exhibition of selected works will be curated.	Award $4,330 $2,384 for film directors $850 for Film Subjects $1,100 for Teaching artists
24. Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego Ask: $4,000 The Extended School Partnership program (ESP) will provide professional exhibition curriculum to two local high schools (Chula Vista High and High Tech High). The program includes in-class instruction, and development of a showcase exhibition.	Award $3,500 $2,000 for MCASD Teaching Artists $1,500 for Program supplies
25. Village Summer Nights Ask $5,000 In an effort to support the inaugural year of Village Summer Nights, the Cultural Arts Chula Vista will work with the Village Summer Nights committee to promote this summer series. The project proposes to showcase local talent, including automobile art.	Award $750 live music performers
26. HarborFest Harborfest is one of Chula Vista premier signature events. Cultural Arts Chula Vista curates the Art in the Park and Maker Faire area, provides sponsorships to local artists, creatives, and innovators to exhibit and sell their work, and produces, manages and pays all artists and talent on the community stage	Award $5,000 Community Stage, Artist in the Park, and Maker Faire

2019 Performing and Visual Arts Grant Recommendations

27. Multi-Cultural Event/LITerature on Third LITerature on Third is a unique one of a kind literary event, that showcases some of the most talented local literary tropes, poets, rappers, lyrical dancers, and actors. Cultural Arts will collaborate with local Modeled like a pub crawl, Literature on Third is intended to market Third Avenue businesses, attract visitors to Third Avenue, and to provide paid opportunities for artists to showcase their talent.	Award $3,000
28. Cultural Arts Master Plan Work Program Cultural Arts works to build upon and expand arts and culture in the City, in a variety of ways including provision of resources, adoption of policies, support of individual creatives, and collaborations with non-profits and businesses. This award will assist in the advancement of the Cultural Arts Master Plan goals, strategies, and initiatives, including Year 2-3 Work Program objectives : To continue to develop and grow programs and activities that have shown to be successful, to support and collaborate with artists, organizations, and businesses that are responsive to the arts and culture needs of the creative community. To work cross departmentally to develop arts and culture programming , data gathering to understand and establish metrics, and continuing to work on the establishment of South Bay Arts Network.	Award $6,000
29. Cultural Arts Marketing and Promotions Event(s) Social media and collaborations with other media outlets including Spanish media on	Award $1,000

2019 Performing and Visual Arts Grant Recommendations

features, advertising, and promotion are critical to creating a robust arts and culture destination. Marketing and promotions of events, activities, artists and arts organizations is an essential component of connecting and collaborating with the creative community and showing Chula Vista's relevance in the arts and culture scene regionally.

Total

$78,730