My name is Richard Dukes and I'm a Chula Vista resident. I support the Vision Zero goal to end all traffic fatalities and serious injuries in Chula Vista because no loss of life is acceptable. However, Vision Zero needs to have a timeframe in order to mean anything, otherwise there is no end in sight. Please update the Vision Zero resolution to add an end year when the goal will be met. I support Vision Zero and ending all traffic fatalities and serious injuries by 2030. Thank you!

My name is Noah Harris, and I am a Transportation Policy Advocate representing Climate Action Campaign. I am writing in support of the Vision Zero goal to end all traffic fatalities and serious injuries in Chula Vista, because it is unacceptable that our neighbors' lives are threatened by unsafe roads. It is essential that the Vision Zero resolution includes a year by which the goal will be met, otherwise loss of life will only continue. Please update the Vision Zero resolution to end traffic fatalities and injuries by 2030. Thank you.

Mayor Mary Salas
City Councilmembers
City of Chula Vista
276 4th Avenue
Chula Vista, CA 91910

Subject: Support for Vision Zero in Chula Vista

Dear Mayor,

As a resident of Chula Vista, I urge the City Council to adopt the goal of Vision Zero. Vision Zero is the goal of ending all traffic fatalities and serious injuries and I agree that zero is the only acceptable number of traffic fatalities and serious injuries that we should strive towards in Chula Vista.

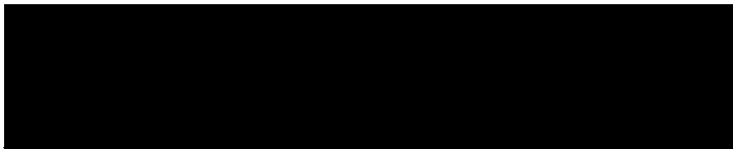

Chula Vista residents should not have to risk their lives while travelling by foot, bicycle, or car in our City. It is critical to prioritize safety improvements in the areas of greatest need. Traffic collisions disproportionately impact vulnerable communities, including people of color, low income families, seniors, and children.

Safe streets benefit the community as well as business. Studies show that people who bike to businesses cumulatively spend more per month than people who drive. Increases in walkability result in higher property values for homeowners.

Strategies for reducing greenhouse gas emissions are directly tied to the need for safe streets. In California, transportation is the largest contributor of GHGs at 39 percent. Any attempt to reduce emissions must include making neighborhoods more walkable, bikeable, and transit-accessible.

A key component of successful Vision Zero program is support from elected leadership. That is why I urge the Mayor and City Council to support Vision Zero.

Thank you,

Safe streets benefit the community as well as business. Studies show that people who bike to businesses cumulatively spend more per month than people who drive. Increases in walkability result in higher property values for homeowners.

Strategies for reducing greenhouse gas emissions are directly tied to the need for safe streets. In California, transportation is the largest contributor of GHGs at 39 percent. Any attempt to reduce emissions must include making neighborhoods more walkable, bikeable, and transit-accessible.

A key component of successful Vision Zero program is support from elected leadership. That is why I urge the Mayor and City Council to support Vision Zero.

Subject: Support for Vision Zero in Chula Vista

Dear Mayor and Councilmembers of the City of Chula Vista:

As a resident of Chula Vista and the Executive Director of the San Diego Mountain Biking Association representing our 1500 members, I urge the City Council to adopt the goal of Vision Zero. Vision Zero is the goal of ending all traffic fatalities and serious injuries and I agree that zero is the only acceptable number of traffic fatalities and serious injuries that we should strive towards in Chula Vista.

Chula Vista residents should not have to risk their lives while traveling by foot, bicycle, or car in our City. It is critical to prioritize safety improvements in the areas of greatest need. Traffic collisions disproportionately impact vulnerable communities, including people of color, low-income families, seniors, and children.
