SUMMARY

The City of Chula Vista is collaborating with local agencies and volunteers to hold the City-sponsored 2016 Starlight Parade. The event continues to grow in popularity and generates positive publicity and awareness for the City of Chula Vista and our historic Third Avenue. The event attracts more than 25,000 people to Third Avenue and promotes community engagement and fosters civic pride. In order to successfully execute an event of this magnitude, an outside event planning firm is needed. McFarlane Promotions is the firm best suited to execute the event. The attached resolution supports approval of a $15,000 agreement with McFarlane Promotions to coordinate the 2016 Starlight Parade.

DISCUSSION

The City of Chula Vista is collaborating with local agencies and volunteers to hold the 2016 Starlight Parade. The City Council approved the Starlight Parade as a City-sponsored event for FY 2016/2017. Proposed activities include day-of holiday events in Memorial Park followed by the parade. The 2015 Starlight Parade attracted more than 25,000 participants to historic Third Avenue while fundraising efforts generated over 20 sponsors. Sufficient funding was generated to support 2015 Starlight Parade expenses. Sponsorship and fundraising activities are underway for the 2016 Starlight Parade through an ad-hoc committee established by Councilmember Patricia Aguilar. Grant funding from the County of San Diego and other agencies and organizations are being pursued.

The success of the 2016 Starlight Parade depends upon expert coordination and planning with City of Chula Vista and Third Avenue Village Association staff, parade participants and others. The Office of Communications solicited proposals from event planning firms to coordinate the 2016 Starlight Parade. A committee reviewed the proposals received and determined McFarlane Promotions, with its experience, qualifications and success in planning large-scale public events, was the best qualified and provided the best value for coordinating the 2016 Starlight Parade. The attached resolution supports approval of a $15,000 agreement with McFarlane Promotions to coordinate the 2016 Starlight Parade.

Potential City risks and liabilities will be mitigated through standard levels of insurance required of the event provider and a special events policy to be purchased by the City and reimbursed out of event proceeds.

Staff will identify funds for the City's Starlight Parade Special Event Sponsorship as part of the development of the FY 2016/2017 budget.
