DISCUSSION

the City's Performing and Visual Arts Grant Fund (PVAG Fund). This fund was established to stimulate the growth of the Arts in Chula Vista through support of Chula Vista artists, arts organizations, educational agencies, and City projects and programming. This year, the proceeds received from Live Nation totaled $86,837 dollars. In addition, there is $2,483 dollars in residual 2016 grant monies in the PVAG Fund for a total of $89,320 dollars available for the FY18 grant cycle. The Review Panel's grant recommendations total $87,101 dollars ((Attachment 1), leaving $2,219 dollars to be carried over to next Fiscal Year's grant cycle

The Cultural Arts Master Plan (CAMP, Goal 4, Strategy 1, Initiative A) recognizes the need to leverage and measure the impact of the PVAG. For this reason, staff worked with the Cultural Arts Commission to develop scoring criteria that was clearly defined, that utilized SMART Principles (Specific, Measureable, Attainable, Relevant, and Timely), and that would provide both the applicant and Review Panel clear guidelines for completion and review of the application packet (Attachment 2). Thirty two (32) applications were received for a total grant requests of $195,583 dollars. This year's applicants included individual artists, City departments, and a variety of arts organizations and non-profits
